PRESIDENT ASKS TAX TO SAVE CREDIT

He Makes Personal Appeal to Congress for Emergency Bill

The House Committee at Once Begins Draft of Revenue Bill

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—President Wilson personally addressed Congress in joint session today, urging legislation to raise $100,000,000 a year additional revenue through internal taxes to meet a treasury deficit threatened by the conflict in Europe.

The president told Congress that he discharged a duty which he wished with all his heart he might have been spared, but which he performed without hesitation or apology, because of the danger in present circumstances to create a "moment's doubt as to the strength and sufficiency of the treasury of the United States."

While the treasury, he said, could get along for a considerable period, he pointed out the peril of the government's withdrawal from its banks approximately $55,000,000 of the treasury balance deposited with them, advised against the government borrowing money or selling bonds which would make a "most untimely and unjustifiable demand upon the money market," and appealed to the intelligent and profoundly patriotic public to bear the burden of a special tax to meet the unforeseen emergency.

Congress listened attentively to the address. Immediately on its conclusion the legislative machinists were set in motion to carry its recommendations into effect. Chairman Underwood called a meeting of the ways and means committee to perfect an internal revenue measure tentatively drafted in preliminary conferences. A bill will be introduced as soon as possible.

The President began reading his address at 12:30 o'clock. He said:

UNWELCOME DUTY.

"Gentlemen of the Congress, I come to you today to discharge a duty which I wish with all my heart I might have been spared; but it is a duty which is very clear, and therefore I perform it without hesitation or apology. I come to ask very earnestly that additional revenue be provided for the government."

"During the month of August there was, as compared with the corresponding month of last year, a falling off of $10,629,325 in the revenues collected from customs. A continuation of this decrease in the same proportion throughout the current fiscal year would probably mean a loss of customs revenues of from 60 to 100 million. I need not tell you to what this falling off is due. It is one, in chief part, not to the reductions recently made in the customs duties, but to the great decrease in imports; and that is due to the extraordinary extent of the industrial area affected by the present war in Europe. Conditions have arisen which no man foresees; they affect the whole world of commerce and economic predictions, and they must be faced and dealt with."

PERIL OF DELAY.

"It would be very unwise to postpone dealing with them. Delay in such a matter and in the particular circumstances in which we now find ourselves as a nation might involve consequences of the most embarrassing and deplorable sort, for which

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 4, 7 a.m.—A Petrograd (St. Petersburg) special to the Reuter Telegram Company says the commander-in-chief has notified the Emperor that the Russians have occupied Lemberg.

The commander-in-chief's message was as follows:

"With extreme joy and thanking God, I announced to your majesty that the victorious army under General Ruzky, captured Lemberg at 11 o'clock this morning. The army of General Brusiloff has taken Halicz.

"I beg your majesty to confer on General Ruzky, in recognition of services preceding the battles, the fourth class of Order of St. George and for

750,000 SOLDIERS FIGHT IN 'GREATEST BATTLE OF HISTORY'

LONDON, Sept. 4, 1:20 p.m.—Telegraphing from Copenhagen, the Paris correspondent of the Central News says that Berlin newspapers, which have been received there describe the battle which was proceeding Wednesday between Rheims and Verdun, as the greatest battle in history. Three-quarters of a million men were declared to be participating in the engagement.

POPULACE OF FRENCH CENTER CONTINUES FLIGHT SOUTHWARD

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 4, 6:16 p.m.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegraph Co. from Antwerp, reaching here by way of Ostend, says that it seems that the attempt of the Germans to envelop the left wing of the allies has been frustrated.

OSTEND, Belgium, via London, 6:10 p.m., Sept. 4.—The advance of the German right wing is reported checked. The Germans have been obliged to retire on St. Quentin.

PARIS, Sept. 4, 3:40 p.m.—It is officially announced that opposing armies "around Paris have not come in contact. They continue their movement taking positions."

The statement adds: "The Germans have been checked at Verdun. The French are successful in Lorraine and the Vosges. The situation has not changed."

LONDON, Sept. 4, 6:16 p.m.—A big force of German cavalry advancing on Compiegne has been vigorously repulsed and obliged to abandon several pieces of artillery.

CONSIDER SURRENDER TO AVOID ARTILLERY.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Sept. 4, 3:15 a.m.—In a dispatch from Rouen, France, the correspondent of the Chronicle says he has learned that the French authorities in Paris are considering the surrender of the city to the Germans in order to avoid the destruction of property from artillery fire.

This will only be done, the correspondent declares, in case the outer line of defenses of Paris are passed by the invaders.

British, French and Belgian wounded are being transferred from Paris to other cities, and the great exodus of the populace of the French capital to the south continues.

The correspondent of the Times at Dieppe under Thursday's date indicates that the Germans are less than twenty-five miles from Paris. He says:

"All day yesterday the head of the wedge which now forms the German right, was furiously forcing its way to Paris, battering at the rear of the retreating French through Creil, Sensis and Crepy-en-Valois.

"The cannonading broke windows in Chantilly, which is but seventeen miles north of Paris. The Germans are also near Sommes."

Another dispatch to the Times from Beauvais, forty miles northwest of Paris, says that the Germans entered Clermont, thirty-five miles from Paris, at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning. At the same time their cavalry was operating around Beauvais.

A dispatch to the Mail from Brie, France, says that a visitor from Chantilly today reports that the bombardment of Somme, a town thirty-two miles north northeast of Paris, could be distinctly heard from Chantilly Saturday afternoon.

THOUSANDS FLEE PARIS.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Sept. 4, 10:40 a.m.—Tens of thousands of Parisian chiefly women and children, have taken advantage of the free trains placed at their disposal by the government for the purpose of clearing Paris and its environs, so far as possible, of all civilians who might hamper the military operations. Most of these people are going to the south or west of France.

The principal newspapers of Paris have transferred their offices to Bordeaux, where the Havas News Agency also has established headquarters.

All perishable food products are rigidly inspected every day at the markets of Paris. This examination is stricter than ever before.

Will Force Germany to Repay Indemnity.

By Associated Press.

COPENHAGEN, via London, Sept. 4.—The Emperor of Russia in a letter to a relative in this city says that all the money that Belgium has been made to pay to Germany, the latter country will be forced to repay with interest in East Prussia.

Press reports of the operations in the east add little to what information has come from official sources. In general they refer to fighting early in the week and confirm Russian claims of disaster to the American arms in Galicia and German successes in East Prussia. The Russians have occupied Lemberg, the capital and stronghold of Austrian Galicia.

The German ambassador to the United States, Count Von Bernstorff, announced that he has positive information that the British cruisers off New York harbor were receiving supplies from a vessel flying the American flag.

Official information regarding the respective positions of the Germans and the allies is, however, lacking.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—In diplomatic quarters today it was believed that should Turkey declare war on the allies and send ships into the Persian gulf, England would ask Japan to take steps to protect British interests in Persia and expel the Turkish invaders. Japan's appearance in the Persian gulf would be but an extension of her action under her alliance with England.

An attack on Persia by Turkey would be a blow at both Russia and England.

SCULPTOR TO MAKE New Pontiff Sends Blessing to America AUDITORIUM PANEL He Sets First Consistory for Tuesday

Council Authorizes Contract for Frieze With A. Sterling Calder.

A. Sterling Calder is well known as the most eminent of the American sculptors. His designs are of great beauty, grace and stateliness. This is the first time he has ever worked on an auditorium panel. The figures will be archaic. Walter Matherne, architect, has designed the niches and panels will be of architectural terra cotta. He will be modeled by himself.

The "face of the auditorium" will be distinctive in art form. There is over $400,000 worth of terra cotta in the new auditorium. It is planned by a number of artists to be sold by auction. The family is to receive an extra amount for this being $500.

COMPLAIN OF DELAY IN PRESS DISPATCHES

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Sept. 4.—5:30 p.m. (Delayed in transmission)—The Evening News publishes the following dispatch from its correspondent at Milan, Italy:

"Italian newspaper correspondents are complaining of the great delay in transmitting telegrams filed in London by Italian correspondents addressed to papers in Italy. These messages take from twenty to thirty hours to come through while press telegrams from Berlin take only four and five hours to reach Italy."

"As a result the German version of events always precedes the English version, which discounts Italian opinion to such an extent that first impressions, which are often erroneous, are most detrimental and difficult to correct."

"The English authorities, in their own interests, should give more facilities to Italian correspondents in London who, after all, are friendly, and who would do effective work if not blundered by inevitable delay."

"Germany is now doing able and intelligent work to influence Italian public opinion by letting Italian correspondents in Berlin wire long messages which are forwarded immediately, and England, in doing the same, would act wisely."

EVIDENCE NOT SUFFICIENT.

Upon the grounds that there was insufficient evidence to warrant a trial, information against W. R. De Wolf, which charged him with attempting to defraud his landlady, was dismissed by Superior Judge Ogden today, at the request of Deputy District Attorney T. P. Wittchen. De Wolf was arrested in Fresno several weeks ago and brought back to Oakland.

50,000 Americans Died Last Year from Bright's Disease and Other Kidney Ailments

Heads the Warning in Time—Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy Will Make Your Kidneys Healthy and Strong.

Pope Benedict XV, who will hold his first consistory next Tuesday.

ROME, Sept. 4.—The Pope has decided to hold his first consistory next Tuesday, when he will confer the red hat on Cardinal Anthony Mendes Ballo, patriarch of Lisbon, and Cardinal Giusasolo v. Mendes, archbishop of Toledo, Spain. Both were created cardinals by Pope Pius X at the consistory last May.

The Pope will deliver on Tuesday his first allocution, which will give to the world the program of his pontificate.

One of the brothers of the pontiff is an admiral in the Italian royal navy, and another is a captain in the Italian army. The first promotion made by the Pope was that of Monsignor Parolin, nephew of Pope Pius X, to be canon of St. Peter's.

Immediately after his election the pontiff said he could not imagine how his frail being was capable of enduring the enormous weight of responsibility thrown upon his shoulders, especially at a moment when all the countries of Europe were stained with blood, when the wounds inflicted upon humanity also were inflicted on the church, and when countless victims of the war were being cut down.

The war he said, had armed fanatical against faithful priest against priest, while the bishops of each country offered prayers for the success of the army of his own nation. But victory for one side meant slaughter to the other, the warriors from kidney disease are prone to imagine they have dispensation, heart disease, nervous prostration and a hundred and one other ills. Very often the kidneys are so weak and diseased that they are utterly unable to carry the waste matter out of the body. The accumulation of this matter in the system, slowly but surely paves the way for Bright's Disease. To afford relief you should begin at once the use of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy. Many physicians consider it to be a very excellent preparation in the treatment of kidney diseases. It reduces inflammation, strengthens the kidneys and liver, and enables these organs to do their work properly and fully. 37 years of success should be sufficient evidence of its merit. Stop experimenting with other preparations and take the tried and reliable Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Remedy. Sold by all druggists in 10c and $1.00 sizes. Send for sample of any remedy and interesting booklet free. Warner's Safe Remedies Co., Dept. 353, Rochester, N.Y.

STRANGE HEADSTONES IN OLD GRAVEYARDS

BOSTON, Sept. 4.—Renovating the famous Phillips street burying ground in Charlestown where the body of John Harvard, founder of Harvard College, was laid at rest, has brought to light several gravestones that were found a few feet underground, having apparently sunk into the earth by their own weight more than 100 years ago.

The ancient cemetery, which was the burial place of Bostonians as far back as 1650, is being thoroughly renovated by the city, the work consisting of stone.

Sept. 26, 1828, the alumni of Harvard College erected a monument at the burying ground to John Harvard, who died Sept. 25, 1638, in Charlestown, and was buried at Phillips street. This monument and the surroundings are being beautified.

The sunken gravestones just brought to light bear the following inscriptions:

"Maud Graves Died The 7 Day Of April 1666."

"Jacob Myrick Ye Son of Joseph & Susanna Myrick Aged 1 Year & 11 Months Died July 2d 1703."

"—ard she— of Edward Sheff & Abigail his Wife Died June 25, 1703, Aged 1 Year 1 Mo 12 Ds."

"Andrew Newell Son of John & Hananah All aged 16 Years & 3 Mo Died May 4, 1688."

"Henry Davis Son of Henry and Sarah Davis Aged 1 Year & Mo & 10 Days Died Sept. 30 1712."

WILSON URGES

WAR TAX IN U.S.

He Makes Personal Appeal to Congress to Pass Emergency Bill.

I, for one, would not care to be responsible. It would be very dangerous in the present circumstances to create a moment's doubt as to the strength and sufficiency of the treasury of the United States; its ability to assist, to steady and sustain the financial operations of the country's business. If the treasury is known, or even thought to be weak, where will be our peace of mind? The whole industrial activity of the country would be chilled and demoralized. Just now the peculiarly difficult financial problems of the moment are being successfully dealt with, with great self-possession and good sense and very sound judgment; but they are only in process of being worked out. If the process of solution is to be completed in our race to given reason to doubt the soundness and adequacy of the treasury of the government which stands behind the whole method by which our difficulties are being met and handled.

BUSINESS PROTECTION.

"The treasury itself could get along for a considerable period, no doubt, without immediate recourse to new sources of taxation. But at what cost to the business of the community?" Approximately $75,000,000, a large part of the present treasury balance, is now on deposit with national banks distributed throughout the country.

WE MUST PAY.

"The occasion is not of our own making. We had no part in making it. But it is here. It affects us as directly and palpably almost as if we were participants in the circumstances which gave rise to it. We must accept the inevitable with calm judgment and unflustered spirits, like men accustomed to dealing with the unexpected, habituated to take care of themselves, masters of their own affairs, and their own fortunes. We shall pay the bill, though we did not deliberately incur it.

"In order to meet every demand upon the treasury without delay or peradventure, and in order to keep the treasury strong, unquestionably strong, before the financial situation which at best still continues in Europe difficult and abnormal, hesitation and delay are the worst forms of bad policy under such conditions.

BORROWING UNJUSTIFIABLE.

"And we ought not to borrow. We ought to resort to taxation, however meagerly necessary, putting additional temporary burdens on our people. To sell bonds would be to make a most untimely and unjustifiable demand on the money market, untimely, because this is manifestly not the time to withdraw working capital from other uses to pay the government's bills, unjustifiable because unnecessary. The country is able to pay any just and reasonable taxes without distress. And to every other form of borrowing, whether for long periods or for short, there is the same objection. These are not the circumstances, this is, at this particular moment, and in this particular exigency, not the market to borrow large sums of money. What we are seeking is to ease and assist every financial transaction, not to add a single additional embarrassment to the situation. The people of this country, are both intelligent and patriotic, patriotic. They are ready to meet the present conditions in the right way and to support the government with generous self-denial. They know and understand, and will be impatient only of those who dodge responsibility or are not frank with them.

WE MUST PAY.

"Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I advised the boys when they enlisted for the Spanish War to take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which they did and received many thanks for the advice given," writes J. H. Houghland, Elton, Iowa. "No person, whether traveling or at home, should be without this great remedy. For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.

SLAYS EDITOR OPPOSED TO WAR

Fanatic Kills French Newsman for Attempting to Prevent Conflict.

PARIS, Sept. 4.—His intensely active efforts to provoke a general labor strike as a means of preventing the gigantic war that now envelops all Europe, were responsible for the assassination of Jean Jaurès, Socialist leader in the Chamber of Deputies and editor of "L'Humanité," the party organ.

Jaurès was slain by a war-crazed fanatic just on the eve of the opening of hostilities between Germany and Belgium. The fast spreading war cloud completely overshadowed this murder which at any other time would have shocked the world. No other tragedy has in recent years been as timely and tragic. The fanatic killed Jaurès in the belief he was ridding France of an enemy.

A wide split in the Socialist party in France had been occasioned by Jaurès' activity in preaching a general labor strike as a means of averting the general war. He was bitterly opposed in his efforts by Gustave Hervé, editor of "La Guerre Sociale," organ of the more revolutionary Socialists. And a strange feature was the fact that five years ago Hervé had served a prison sentence for publishing extreme ideas favoring a general labor strike—the thing he later opposed.

FAVORED STRIKE.

Jaurès had long been favoring the general strike idea—long before the war cloud loomed big and black. He had succeeded in having the French delegation to the International Socialists' Convention, which was to have met at Vienna, August 23, instructed to vote in favor of a general strike. It was only after the hottest kind of a fight, however, that he got this motion passed. Hervé had many followers and they formed a huge minority in the French party. The motion in favor of a general strike which was favored by Jaurès read as follows:

"Among all the methods for forestalling or preventing war, and for imposing the necessity upon governments for arbitration, we consider as particularly efficacious:

"A general labor strike, simultaneously organized in the countries interested."

The growing hostility of France and Germany months ago is considered the reason why so many Socialists followed Hervé's lead and bitterly opposed the idea of a general strike.

Jules Gude, one of the leaders in the party who opposed Jaurès, in a speech months before war broke out, said:

"Let us presuppose a war with Germany. The Jauresists speak of a simultaneous and internationally organized strike. What is there to guarantee that the strike will be simultaneous?"

And admitting that a strike would be called at the same moment on both sides, who can say whether the strike will be effective?

"It is no reason like a child not to see the country which has the better organizations and which ties the hands of the government the tighter, will be the country to get licked. With the Jaures system, the country with a perfectly organized Socialist and Labor group will deliver itself into the hands of the enemy. It puts a premium on poor organization since the country of poor organization will come out victorious."

And Jules Gude, scanning every syllable, repeated to the correspondent at that time what he had told his fellow Socialists to their faces:

"In time of war a general labor strike would be high treason against Socialism. We must not allow it to be said of Socialism that it is opposed to patriotism."

Gustave Hervé a long time ago told of his change of heart in regard to the general strike.

"In 1907 I strongly and brutally urged the plan of insurrection in time of war—for there can be no general strike without insurrection," he said.

"At that time I would have voted for the Jaurès motion with both hands. I have changed. Today I will not vote for it at all."

"Let us follow Socialists, be frank. The members of the party need not look pitifully at me. Let them look at themselves instead. In the old days the words 'general strike' and 'insurrection' were boldly carried in our motions. Today I search for them in vain. So don't let us use bluffs any more."

"There is but one way for France and Germany to get together and that is for Germany to give a new deal to Alsace-Lorraine; to give these former French provinces self-government and cease bullying the poor people there—as if they are not happy enough already."

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, it is claimed, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversions, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying power are a result of doing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to doze them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Senuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

OHLMAYER SOUGHT BY LOCAL POLICE

Bandmaster suffers aberration, Believe Friends Who Cashed His Checks.

Declared to have left behind him a trail of bad checks, passed in more than a dozen Oakland business houses, and believed by his friends to be suffering from a temporary mental aberration. Henry Ohlmeyer, formerly leader of the celebrated Ohlmeyer's Coronado Band, one of the greatest musical organizations in the United States, is now being sought by detectives, following his disappearance from Oakland Sunday.

Among the Oaklanders and business houses declared to have been victimized by the former bandmaster, are the following: Hotel Oakland, Key Route Inn, Sausalito Rock Cafe, Pat Hayes, R. J. Gray, cashier of the Santa Fe railroad.

The Central National Bank, it is alleged, turned back three of Ohlmeyer's checks for $5 each on the Hotel Oakland, and others were turned back by the First National Bank. R. J. Gray, cashier of the Santa Fe local offices, said he met the bandmaster in Oakland Sunday after his check had been sent back, marked "No Funds," and Ohlmeyer promised to cash, declaring that he was surprised that there was no money in the bank in his name. Gray, who has known Ohlmeyer for fifteen years, declared that he thought him the victim of a mistake, until news of the other checks came out.

HOTEL HOLDS GOODS.

It was learned today that the former bandmaster's baggage is being held by the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco for a bill there. It is declared that several of his checks are also reported of no account on the other side of the bay.

A J. Mount of the Central Bank declares that Ohlmeyer was seen in Oakland Sunday, but disappeared shortly after. Mount confirmed the statement of House Detective Mason of the Hotel Oakland that three checks cashed in the hotel were of no account.

"I believe that the man is mentally unbalanced," declares T. A. Rigdon, local agent of the Santa Fe railroad, who has known Ohlmeyer in a business way for some time. "Henceforth he has always been good for only small amounts, and we have done considerable business with him. I don't understand it, and firmly believe that when found he will be discovered temporarily mentally unbalanced."

Ohlmeyer gave up the Coronado band, of which he was manager two years ago, shortly after an engagement at Idora Park, and since then has lived in Oakland and San Francisco.

BRAINS DIVORCE CHARGES.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 4.—Governor Johnson today appointed State Controller John S. Chambers and President John Mitchell of the State Board of Equalization to represent California as delegates to the conference to be held in Denver, Colorado, September 8 to 11.

OUIMET AND FOWNES
LEAD SEMI-FINALS

MANCHESTER, Vt., Sept. 4.—At the end of the first eighteen holes in the semi-final round for the national amateur golf championship, Francis Ouimet of Woodward and W. C. Fowles of Oakmont, were all square and J. D. Travers of Upper Montclair, the 1913 champion, was one up over Walter J. Travis of Garden City.

The next encampment will mark the fiftieth anniversary of the close of the Civil War and may be the last gathering of the veterans made eventful by their parades.

When the meeting was called today some ventured to predict David J. Palmer of Iowa would be the next commander-in-chief.

"Tax" Conference to Be Held at Denver

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 4.—Governor Johnson today appointed State Controller John S. Chambers and President John Mitchell of the State Board of Equalization to represent California as delegates to the conference to be held in Denver, Colorado, September 8 to 11.

OUIMET AND FOWNES
LEAD SEMI-FINALS

MANCHESTER, Vt., Sept. 4.—At the end of the first eighteen holes in the semi-final round for the national amateur golf championship, Francis Ouimet of Woodward and W. C. Fowles of Oakmont, were all square and J. D. Travers of Upper Montclair, the 1913 champion, was one up over Walter J. Travis of Garden City.

Both matches proved unusually exciting, as Ouimet and Fowles were never more than a hole apart and to a near Travers overcame a three-hole early lead by Travis. Fowles obtained the advantage at the ninth by playing the 142 yards under par. Ouimet followed suit on the tenth, a 500-yard hole, which he negotiated in four, once more squaring the match.

Ouimet lost the fifteenth and a chance for the eighteenth on stymies.

Travers was amazingly weak in his putting on the outward journey of his match with Travis. Thrice had a seemingly comfortable lead of three holes at the turn, when he began to play wild.

The match was all square at the thirteenth and Travis took the lead for the first time at the fifteenth but lost it at the seventeenth, through poor short iron work. He ended the morning play one hole to the good. Travis being trapped on the last hole.

RAILROAD OFFICIAL RECOVERS.

Following an illness of more than two months, L. Richardson, local agent for the Southern Pacific, today returned to his desk in the Oakland offices. Richardson has spent the past month in Shasta springs recuperating.

REBELS MAKE BUTTE MINERS GRUESOME FIND ARE TRIED BY TROOPS

Mexican Authorities Discover Preserved Human Heart and Madero's Clothing.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 4.—The Constitutional military authorities today discovered a human heart, preserved in alcohol in a glass jar, in a private residence here. Several arrests were made in connection with this discovery, but the authorities refuse to divulge the names of those taken into custody. Other arrests are expected shortly.

Blood-stained clothing which belonged to President Madero and Vice-President Pino Suarez, who were slain in Mexico City in February or March, also has been found, together with a watch which belonged to the president and a pin which was the property of his brother, Gustavo Madero. These pieces of jewelry will be placed in the national museum.

General Joaquin Jimenez Castro, one of the Federal commanders, was arrested today. The charge against him was not made public.

The search for arms in Mexico City is being prosecuted with vigor.

ONLY FIRST CHIEF.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—So far as the United States is concerned, General Venustiano Carranza is not provisional president of Mexico, but "first chief of the Constitutional army," in temporary charge of the executive power of the republic.

President Wilson himself so explained the status of the Mexican executive discussing Mexican affairs with callers yesterday. Mr. Wilson said that so far he had been informed Carranza did not style himself "provisional president," retaining the title he had used since Madero was overthrown.

The significance of the president's explanation lies in the fact that General Villa informed the United States that during the conference at Torreon, when the first Villa-Carranza break was adjusted, an agreement was reached for a convention of all generals and representatives of the army in Mexico City to designate a provisional president. Villa made it clear that if Carranza were selected he could not, under the constitution, be a candidate to succeed himself in the general election. If Carranza wished to enter the race, Villa insisted that he must relinquish his present position as first chief in favor of a provisional president acceptable to all factions who would conduct an election.

That the followers of Carranza now have accepted the program was indicated by the news that Carranza admitted not having assumed the title of provisional president.

It is considered likely, in official circles that when a provisional president is chosen, recognition will be extended, though American forces probably will not be withdrawn from Vera Cruz until after an election is held.

ARMY CHIEFS GATHERING.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 4.—Carranza and the various government heads were in session all yesterday afternoon and evening in Chapultepec Castle, discussing plans for a meeting of the army chiefs from all parts of the republic to determine the manner and the date for the calling of general elections. It is reported that a number of generals are now on their way to the capital in response to telegraphic calls to attend the meeting.

The disposition seems to be to arrange for the substitution of a civil regime for the military regime at the earliest date possible.

FULLER ARRIVES ON MISSION.

VERA CRUZ, Sept. 4.—Paul Fuller, personal representative of President Wilson, and Mrs. Fuller arrived here yesterday. It is stated that he will leave today for the capital, accompanied by John R. Silliman of the American consular service, who met him today, and perhaps by H. L. Hall, a resident in Mexico, who lately has been in Washington and came south with Mr. Fuller.

Mr. Hall for a long time is said to have believed that he would be able to induce Emiliano Zapata, the rebel leader, with whom he is acquainted, to cease his warfare. He was once held prisoner by Zapata, who released him after being unable to obtain a ransom.

Mr. Fuller's commission differs from that of George C. Carothers and Mr. Silliman, who were sent by the State Department to treat respectively with General Carranza and General Carranza.

Mr. Fuller's powers enable him to deal with both General Villa and President Carranza. He expects to have no time in placing before General Carranza a frank statement of the ideas of the Washington administration with regard to Mexico, and seems convinced General Carranza will offer little opposition to them.

DECIDES TO DISCUSS.

Mr. Fuller would not discuss the character of the message to General Carranza he bears from President Wilson. He smiled at a suggestion of American recognition of Mexico before a full and satisfactory government is established. Mr. Fuller decided that he would remain long in the capital. He said there is no probability that he will be the American ambassador to Mexico after the government is recognized by the United States.

On his arrival Mr. Fuller took up quarters at military headquarters and remained for some time with W. W. Canada, the American consul, and Mr. Silliman. He did not, however, escape the unofficial element which was anxious to place before him evidence of conditions in the country. Several priests called on him and related some of the more harrowing experiences priests and nuns underwent at the hands of the Constitutionalists.

URGES MILLIMEN'S SCHOOL.
SACRAMENTO, Sept. 4.—An attempt to have the men employed in the lumbering camps in the vicinity of Westwood, Lassen county, devote half of their day in work in the public schools, is being made by Professor O. F. Hawkins, who established a school in the town last year. Hawkins was in Sacramento, and stated he believed the venture would be successful. Some of the mill managers in the vicinity are considering the ad-vicability of the plan, he said.

MANY BABIES DIE.
VIRGINIA CITY, Nev., Sept. 4.—Infants have died in such numbers during the last few weeks that local health officers have issued lists of precautions regarding food and water.

YOUNG FOLK PLAN STATE SESSIONS

ANTI-SUFFRAGISTS AID RED CROSS

Young People's Union to Convene in Sacramento Church.

Busy Turning Out Bandages and Other Materials for Use on Battlefields.

The annual convention of the Northern California State Baptist Young People's Union will be held in Sacramento, Sept. 5, 6 and 7.

Delegates from the bay region are to leave San Francisco on Saturday afternoon, September 5 on the 1:40 p. m. Key Route boat and the Oakland and Berkeley delegates at 2:10 p. m. from the Oakland, Antioch & Eastern Railroad depot at Fortieth street and Shafter avenue.

The convention will be held in the First Baptist Church, of which Rev. S. Fraser is pastor. The meetings will be presided over by C. Gilman Lister, state president.

The Saturday afternoon session will consist of an organ recital by Miss Maud Reiman of Sacramento. The opening address of welcome will be made by Rev. Eugene Holmes and the response by the state president.

After the business session and appointments of committee there will be an open air service at the City Hall and a 5 o'clock banquet will be held in the new Y. M. C. A.

In the evening at 8:15 a missionary panorma will be given under the direction of Mrs. J. A. Benton.

On Sunday morning at 9 o'clock an air meeting will be held in the city plaza, under the leadership of Mr. Harry Denton of Sacramento. At 11 a. m. Rev. S. Fraser Landford will preach the convention sermon on "Young Baptists in the Kingdom." At 12 noon Rev. S. Denton, the great evangelist of San Jose, will hold an open air meeting in the city plaza. Miss Stockton will also preach at the evening service to be held in the First Baptist Church.

OTHER SPEAKERS.

On Monday morning at 8:30 Mrs. Gladys McMillan will conduct a "Good Morning" service before the service "What Yesterday Brought to Me." At 9 a. m. Miss Myrtle Atchley of San Francisco will speak on the Junior work and Rev. F. L. Flowers on the Intermediate work.

The business session at 9:30 a. m. will be presided over by C. Gilman Lister.

At this time efforts will be started for the year and reports made of the work done during the past year.

AN OLD IDEA OF EDUCATION

For centuries it has been the sensible idea of the practical father that his son should learn a trade. Father and mother might pass away with no heritage for the son, but the young man would have a trade and be able to earn his living.

The present conditions of living render this a wise custom to apply to young women. Let a young woman have an education whereby she can make her own living if necessary. Even if she does not use it immediately she has a preparation for the future that is the best inheritance her family can bestow upon her.

It is the aim of the Ilion Shorthand Institute to give this education simply thoroughly, with refined surroundings. The day classes are restricted to young ladies and the teaching is in small private classes. Established for fourteen successful years, the Institute has built up a reputation for the very best teaching of a "trade" education.

The school is located at 529 Twelfth street; elevator entrance Blake block 1121 Washington street—Adv.

BOY PLAYS IN STREET; IS KICKED BY HORSE

While playing on the street in front of the Free Market yesterday afternoon, Frank, the 5-year-old son of Dominic Roller, of 278 Eleventh street, chanced to near a skittish horse and was kicked by the animal. He incurred a laceration of the nose and a deep cut on the forehead.

The boy had stooped to pick up a ball that rolled under the horse and in doing so angered the animal. Roger Ageno, his cousin, carried him to the Recreational Hospital where his injuries were treated by Surgeon W. H. Irwin and Steward Davidson.

This action has been taken by the state organizations of New York and Massachusetts in response to the appeal recently issued by Mrs. Arthur Chase, national president, and others are expected to follow suit. Anti-suffrage offices generally will be designated also as collection agencies for Red Cross subscriptions.

The proposal has been made that a truce with the suffrage supporters be sought during the European struggle.

Mrs. Dodge tonight announced she would call for only $500 instead of $15,000 to fight suffrage in seven states this fall, as had been planned.

The statement adds that the smaller sum will not be sought if the suffragists do not force the fighting in contested territory.

MRS. RALPH G. HEWITT SUCCUMBS TO ILLNESS

After an illness of three months, Mrs. Gladys Eunice Hewitt, 20 years old, wife of Ralph G. Hewitt and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Shaw of 598 Walworth avenue, died yesterday afternoon at the family home.

Mrs. Hewitt was born in Virginia City, Nev., but at an early age she came to this city. She was an accomplished musician, a lover of the fine arts. She was a graduate of the Oakland High School. She left a son, Byron Henry Hewitt, and besides her parents and husband, a sister, Miss Franklin Shaw of this city. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from the home.

SHEATHE THE SWORD? NO, SNAP IT TWO!

Put up again thy sword into his place; for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

—Matthew XLVI:52.

The press of this and other nations is almost a unit in declaring that this should be the last war. Strong pleas have been made by great journals all over the earth for the abolition of this barbarous method of settling differences. But none have been couched in more thrilling terms and glorious words than the following from the Toronto Globe, which is exalted and noble:

The sword ought never again to be sheathed. It ought to be broken. This war that threatens the world, destroying the treasures of civilization and turning back humanity to savagery, famine and death, ought to be the world's last war. In order that it may be, the last of its weapons ought to be out of the reach of any nation. The spoils of this war ought to be, not new territory for the victors, and not the destruction of the vanquished, but disarmament for vanquished and victors. Having drawn the sword for herself, for her own free nations overseas, for her allies in Europe, for the defense of the little kingdoms and for the cause of human freedom in all lands, Britain will justify herself before the world and once again will lead the only way to peace if she holds the sword unsheathed until it and every other sword of military aggression and international menace is broken.

All national armaments must be destroyed. All great armies must be dissolved. All great navies must be dispersed. The nations, before their wounds have time to close, must come together, recognizing their community interests and for the defense and development of their community rights. In that new community of nations no one nation can be allowed to carry a gun and a knife. Each nation must keep the peace and give protection within its own borders, but in the community of nations there must be international comity. There must be international jurisprudence, international courts, international judgments executed by international authority obedient to the sanctions of international justice. Nation shall not lift up the sword against nation. The sword of national hate or national vengeance must be broken; broken for all, broken forever.

Brave words and bravely spoken. A prediction for the "parliament of man in the federation of the world." Utopian, however in a sense, although perhaps the realization is not so far distant as we may believe. That the world will be sick with horror when the details of the strife now pending are given publicity there is no doubt. That there will be a great movement toward peace he who denies is foolish. But whether such permanent peace will be established depends.

To assure that peace which means contentment and advancement for the peoples of earth there must first be a substitution of government which will place all power in the hands of the people. Governments must derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. To assure success under such a system, the people themselves must be educated, for intelligence is the prime requisite in government of, by and for the masses. Who will say that the flower of the youth of Germany and France and Austria and even Russia, would be flying at each other's throats had the people themselves had the desire?

In the people rests, or should rest, all power. They are supreme. Kings may be great in the eyes of their subjects, but it looks as if the people should be greater in the eyes of Infinity. Yet with this supremacy in their hands, these people now fighting have taken the field to die or to win, at the behests of individuals who arrogate to themselves the right to say they rule by God's grace and are therefore charged with the destinies of their subjects. Where a moment's reflection on the part of the armies would have convinced them of their supremacy, they have failed to indulge in such reflections and as a result thousands have died. Can this be construed as lack of intelligence? In a measure yes, for he who omits to think is not really intelligent.

It is possible that the disarmament suggested might be the first step toward the acquiring of that knowledge that will prompt the people to tip over thrones and assume the authority to the exclusion of these so called "Lord's anointed," and if so the experiment is worth trying. For surely these are the days when the angel with the sharp sickle has thrust it in, is gathering the clusters of the earth, the ripened grapes which are being trodden in the great wine press and the fruit thereof is of blood, as the Apocalypse recites: "Even unto the horses' bridles."

The deer season has closed in many counties in the state, but the "deer" season in Oakland is open just the same.

By way of showing how popular the Progressive movement is in Wisconsin, attention is directed to the fact that La Follette lost his candidate for governor in the recent primary and that F. E. McGovern, the man to whom he ascribed his defeat for the nomination in 1912, was the winner of the nomination for United States Senator.

Toxic cigarettes were pleaded as an excuse for robbing a grocery store by a thief just sentenced. Toxic must be connected in some way with the famous brand of Jersey lightning, one portion of which was guaranteed to make a man steal oats from his own horse.

BEANS FOR NOODLES, NOODLES OF BEANS.

Cheer up, bean growers of California! A new market is going to open for your products. Let Boston eat spaghetti and macaroni in preference to the time honored "pork and" if she likes; who cares? An army surgeon in China has solved a great problem by the invention of noodles made of beans, thereby opening a great vista of possibilities both for grower and consumer.

Following many years of study, this man of science has perfected the bean noodle in its grandeur and succulence and has established a bean noodle factory at Nishi-machi, Port Arthur, where, with a machine run by electricity, he has started using bushels and bushels of beans daily.

It is possible of course that China may grow her own beans for her own noodles, but think of the immense amount that will be consumed right here at home, where the noodle has been a thing of beauty and a joy for years and years. We predict a great advance in this industry, because there is something so suggestive to the palate in the mention of bean noodles that a fellow yearns to rush right out of the office and grab a mess.

Rejoice, oh, Ventura and Madera County; rejoice ye stretches of the Salinas and the Pajaro Valleys; rejoice San Joaquin and the Upper Sacramento, for it may be that through the bean noodle the bean crop of the Golden State may yet be what corn is to the Middle West, the sheet anchor of the farmer and the joy and delight of all our peoples.

While there may be some uncertainty as to the winners and losers in the battles of Europe, there is no doubt as to the position of the Oakland baseball team.

With due respect to President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University, and a profound admiration for his recent lecture on the causes of the European war, we suggest he was dangerously near violating the neutrality proclamations of two mayors of bay cities.

NO—THEY'RE NOT IN IT YET

TRIBUNE'S BOY RACE INTERESTING EVENT.

Next Wednesday morning THE TRIBUNE'S annual race for boys, twice around Lake Merritt, the regular Admission Day event, takes place. The youngsters are showing great interest; that is manifest from the fact that twenty-eight schools and other athletic organizations of juveniles have more than one hundred entries. Before the final list is made up it is expected that more than two hundred will be enrolled for the start.

It will be something worth looking at, the race around the lake over a fine course, and Oaklanders who want to see a lot of finely-built lads, full of "pep" and "jazz" do their very best, should not fail to be on hand at the start and wait for the finish.

It is not so much the race that should interest as the clean-living feature preceding it. No dawshy infant with a penchant for cigarettes; no boy with the tobacco chewing habit; no lad who stays out late o' nights will be in this contest. But on the other hand the fellows who make the race will be pure-blooded, clean-limbed, sturdily-built young chaps, full of red corpuscles and vim.

Weaklings who have permitted themselves to deteriorate as a result of early excesses will have no place in the line and you can wager that the winners will be found among the lads who take the greatest pride in keeping the temple of the body free from the impurities that sap vigor, cause the brain to lag in its functions and sap the foundations of nature.

Take in this race; it will be an object lesson for many older heads.

Europe's A.-B.-C. mediation appears to consist of Airships, Bombs and Cannon.

Because of the war Germany has cancelled United States orders, principally Californian, for eight hundred cars of dried apricots. Following the customs of dealers in other commodities, this should prove an excellent excuse for the apricot men to hoist the price.

UNITED STATES REAL "SALT OF THE EARTH."

Uncle Sam is the greatest salt producer of the western continents. The output is enormous, as is shown by figures issued by the United States Geological Survey, recently issued. The market production, including Hawaii and Porto Rico in 1913, reached the record-breaking total of 34,399,298 barrels, of 280 pounds each, or 4,815,902 short tons, valued at $10,123,139. These figures represent an increase in quantity of three per cent and an increase in value of nearly eight per cent, compared with the year previous.

Salt is of two kinds, rock salt in beds or associated with bedded or sedimentary rocks and in solution as in sea water or in brines or bitterns. A large portion is derived by converting the natural rock salt into brine, which is then pumped to the surface and evaporated. Rock salt is produced chiefly by deep shaft mining in the eastern, central and southern parts of the United States. Some comes from surface deposits in California and Utah, while quantities are made by evaporation of ocean water or the waters of Great Salt Lake. California has salt producing stations on San Francisco bar, near Long Beach, near Moss Landing and near San Diego. Michigan ranks first, New York, Ohio, Kansas and California following in the order named. California's salt is largely produced by evaporation of sea water produced by solar effect.

PEACE ONLY HOPE FOR COTTON MEN

Lack of Buyers and Not Lack of Transportation Is Real Trouble.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Restoration of peace in Europe is the only real remedy for the situation confronting the cotton growers, Representative Shavon of Texas told the House yesterday.

"The trouble is not a lack of transportation," he said. "Traffic is now moving out of Galveston, New Orleans and Atlantic ports in a way that bids fair to force a return to normal shipping conditions very soon. The trouble is a lack of buyers. European mills cannot buy cotton until they have men and money to maintain it. These can be secured only through the re-establishment of peace."

The House Committee on Agriculture filed yesterday its favorable report on the proposed Federal supervised warehousing system for cotton, grain and other non-perishable agricultural products. This will be a consolidation of two measures, will be pressed for action at this session.

The dire situation confronting the cotton producers, the committee reported, "emphasizes most strikingly the utter inadequacy of the present system of marketing standard farm crops. The essential weakness is lack of adequate storage facilities and their non-relation to the country's banking system."

The bill provides that uniform warehouse receipts will be issued on agricultural products stored in government licensed warehouses. The system is not compulsory, however, and does not interfere with the warehouse systems now organized under state or local authority.

REAR-ADMIRAL TO REORGANIZE FLEET

Fletcher Will Be Permitted to Carry Out Own Ideas.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—When Rear Admiral Frank F. Fletcher succeeds Rear Admiral Badger as commander-in-chief September 15, of the Atlantic fleet, he will carry out his own ideas regarding the organization and operations of the fleet. The admiral twice has been a member of the general board, has been a student of strategy and tactics for several years, and Secretary Daniels has decided to give him an opportunity to put his views into practice.

Rear Admiral Fletcher intends to make the first and fourth divisions as representing the ends of the fleet, either in column or line, the strongest division. It is his plan to establish a cruiser division. To accomplish this a present special service squadron consisting of the battleships New York and Texas, and some smaller vessels, will be disbanded, the battleships joining the main fleet and the other vessels the cruiser squadron.

Rear Admiral William B. Caperton will command the battleships and his flagship will be the Washington.

Rear Admiral Walter McLean has been selected to command a division of the Atlantic fleet. He now is a member of the naval examining board at the Washington navy yard.

Captain Roy C. Smith of the battleship Arkansas will become director of target practice, being relieved by Captain W. R. Shoemaker of the navy board.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS AT CONVENTION BANQUET

With a banquet last evening the tenth annual convention of the California Funeral Directors' Association, closed its three days' conclave in Hotel Oakland Kenyon Warren of Pasadena, president-elect, was toastmaster. He was introduced by J. J. Cox, county president of the funeral directors. About 250 members of the state and county association were present. Toasts were responded to by J. J. Cox, Frank M. Smith, Assemblyman McCarthy of San Francisco, A. A. Denon, secretary of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, Wilder Walker, secretary of the Merchants' Exchange, and George Lunt, vice-president of the National Funeral Directors' Association. Songs were contributed by L. S. Moore and Robert Hunt. Robert Robertson, president of the Merchants' Exchange, gave a number of clever stories.

The next annual convention of the California National Funeral Directors' Association will be held in 1915 in San Francisco.

WILL BOOST FAIR, IS MESSAGE FROM ITALY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—Out of the turmoil of the European conflict has come a voice vindicating the officials of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in their contention that the exposition would not be crippled by the war.

Ernesto Nathan, former Mayor of Rome, now Italian commissioner-general to the exposition, cabled President Charles C. Moore yesterday that construction work on the Italian pavilion would be begun immediately. At the same time, the contracting firm which will erect the building received a cablegram ordering the immediate beginning of work.

Harris D. H. Connick, exposition director of works, issued today a permit for building work and today permissons will be ringing on the Italian pavilion.

BIDEGOODS ARE 65. Cyrus Sanders, a rancher of Healdsburg, was yesterday united in marriage to Cora R. York, and John Nickolson was married to Julia H. C. Speer. Both are of East Oakland. The bidegoods have both reached their sixtieth year and are widowers, and the bride is a widow of 53 and 35 years, respectively.

BOY MOTORCYCLIST. Robert Coyle, 602 Forty-seventh street, a delivery boy, for a large department store, incurred a compound fracture of the leg, internal injuries and possible fracture of the skull, when his motorcycle and an automobile driven by J. R. Douglass, 667 Fifth avenue, San Francisco, collided last evening at Aileen and Grove streets. Douglass removed the boy in his automobile to Fabiola Hospital. Immediately after the accident, and it is believed that he will recover.

Douglass informed the police that he made every effort to avoid the accident, but that the boy drove his motorcycle in a manner indicating that he did not know how to run it well.

KODANI FACES MURDER CHARGE

Big Crowd in Courtroom to Get Glimpse of Accused Man.

MONTREY, Sept. 4.—Crowds of the morbidly curious flocked to the city hall yesterday to be present at the preliminary hearing of George Kodani, the Japanese who has confessed to the killing of Miss Helen Wood Smith, the Carmel girl, yesterday. Numerous members of the Carmel tourist colony, many young girls and outside visitors, crowded their way into the building in a frantic endeavor to get a glimpse of the Oriental who has brought upon himself the Monterey peninsula so much notoriety.

He was not represented by an attorney and he had no case to present. When the case of the people had been submitted Judge of the Peace Ernest Michelles ruled that Kodani be held to answer to the charge of wilful and premeditated murder in the Superior Court and that he be bound over without bail.

The hearing lasted only forty-five minutes and only a few witnesses were examined. Throughout the proceedings the Japanese faced away from the crowd and kept his eyes fixed upon the floor. Occasionally he would compress his lips, and now and then he stole a glance at the 100 spectators who gazed at him as though he were an object to inspire awe. While the complaint was being read to him the stocky brown man bowed his head and assumed a manner which was perhaps interpreted as sorrowful.

R. Bechtold, a member of the parties which found the body of the woman buried in the sand near the mouth of the Carmel river, was the first witness to be called. He related the incidents connected with the finding of the body, and testified concerning its disposition. J. A. Peli, the coroner, presented the court with a brooch and the bows of spectacles which he said were found on the body.

Peli and Dr. Martin McAulay, who conducted the autopsy, both gave testimony concerning the condition of the body when found, and related to the court the findings of the autopsy. Dr. McAulay was certain that Miss Smith had met death by strangulation.

One of the most important witnesses summoned was Miss M. De Neal Morgan, a well-known artist of Carmel. She said she went in company with Mrs. Mary Hart, a friend, to Miss Smith's home, after her disappearance, and found a hand print which she was certain was not the artist's, and that she found pieces of glass in the sitting-room of the Smith cottage, which, together with the hand prints, gave evidence of a struggle.

Admiral Fletcher intends to make the first and fourth divisions as representing the ends of the fleet, either in column or line, the strongest division. It is his plan to establish a cruiser division. To accomplish this a present special service squadron consisting of the battleships New York and Texas, and some smaller vessels, will be disbanded, the battleships joining the main fleet and the other vessels the cruiser squadron.

MYSTERY VEILS SHOOTING AFFAIR

Prominent Social Worker Is Found Dead With Bullet Through Head.

EAR HARBOR, Me., Sept. 4.—Leonard E. Odycke of New York, prominent in social services work, was found dead yesterday on his summer estate here, with a bullet wound in the root of his mouth. The medical examiner reported that the shooting was probably accidental. A gardener discovered the body.

lying on the floor of a tool house. The revolver which Odycke apparently had been cleaning was grasped in the right hand.

Odycke was a graduate of Harvard in the class of 1889, of which Theodore Roosevelt was a member.

"MOVIE" QUEEN, THEN WEDDED; TWINS NEXT

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 4.—The final seal of domesticity has been placed upon Mrs. Hawley Turner, formerly Anne Avery, one of the most popular moving picture queens and now the wife of the well-known young business man.

Mrs. Turner is the proud mother of two young sons.

The arrival of the paid on Saturday has finally convinced her that there is nothing like home, and the screen will know her no more.

"One would have been enough to keep me busy the rest of my life," says Mrs. Turner. "What will two do? I wonder?"

POLICE SEEK CLEWS TO CRIME

Los Angeles Murder Suspect Is Thought to Be Hiding in Oakland.

Traced to Fresno, last believed to be in Los Angeles, and now thought to be hiding on this side of the bay, "James Fagen," wanted as a suspect in the mysterious case surrounding the murder of Mrs. Maud B. Kennedy in Los Angeles, is now being sought by detectives in Oakland, following wired instructions from the Los Angeles police department. The man was first traced in Los Angeles, but later, the police lost his trail. News from Fresno showed that he had once been arrested there on a bad check charge, and was believed to have passed through the city en route to Oakland. Following this news the police of the southern city got into touch with the local detectives.

Another man also declared to have been connected with the case, is in the meanwhile being sought in Los Angeles according to statements made by the police and plans are under way for coming the state in an effort to locate the wanted man.

While detectives are throwing out their dragnet the maze of circumstances surrounding the murder case is daily becoming more tangled. The dead woman was found in a vacant lot, murdered, it is believed. For the jewels which she wore, for these had been stripped from the body. Louis Atrosky, otherwise known as "Cyclone Thompson," a well known Los Angeles character, and known to have been a friend of the dead woman, was arrested following the news that he had been in communication with her shortly before the murder. He proved an absolute alibi and was released.

Another complication was cast into the situation at this time when it was learned that there were two men known as "Cyclone Thompson." The other, however, it was discovered, was not in Los Angeles at the time of the murder. "Fagen" was mentioned in the case as a former prizefighter, and was declared once to have drugged the woman. Following this clue the police learned that a negro had attempted to sell a diamond corresponding in description to one stolen from the dead woman, to Jacob Tabin, a tailor. The latter, becoming suspicious, refused to buy the stone and reported the matter to the police.

The body of Mrs. Kennedy, who was the widow of Major P. E. A. Kennedy, met her death by strangling, according to the verdict of the coroner's jury which sat on the case. Ammonia had been forced into the woman's mouth, and burns were evident that first hinted at an attempt to hold poisoning. The woman had left her home for a few moments and had not returned. Her relatives headed by her son, Philip Kennedy, started a search. In the meantime a small boy stumbled across the body, which was lying behind some bushes, where it had been dragged. Marks on the ground showed that the corpse had been dragged fully 75 feet.

Two witnesses were found who declared they had seen a man standing over a woman's prostrate body in the lot. It was dark, and no descriptions could be obtained.

Henry Keller, an architect, declares that he saw a man and woman struggling and heard groans and thought it was a fight. He went to his home; he declared, to get his gun and later saw a man, in a heavy overcoat, leave the lot. Not seeing the woman, and believing it a family quarrel, he gave the matter no further thought.

B. Marchesi, a druggist, declares that two men came into his store, and one telephoned to a woman, asking her to meet him. He declared one appeared to be a thief.

Other evidence which the police have not made public is declared to have led to the discovery of some of the jewels in the pawnshop, and efforts are being made to trace the suspects through these as well.

DARING MARINER SUCCUMBS TO AGE

Several Times Wrecked He Attained Fame as a Navigator.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 4.—Captain Albert W. Keller, one of the oldest navigators on the Pacific Coast and for many years in the employ of Pope & Talbot, the San Francisco shipping concern, died last night at the home of his niece, Mrs. U. P. Grant, 2112 Clement avenue. Keller was one of the famous sea captains of the Pacific Coast, having sailed round the world many times and also having been the victim of several wrecks. He was 82 years of age at the time of his death, fifty of which were spent in the employment of Pope & Talbot. Death came as a gradual decline brought on by his years.

Keller was of old New England stock, his relatives coming from Maine. He himself was a native of that state, and spent his early life on the coast of Maine. When a young man he came West to the then pioneer State of California and secured a berth on one of Pope & Talbot's ships. His advance was rapid, and in a few years he was made captain of one of the vessels. His history from that time on is one of constant travel with several wrecks at different periods of his life.

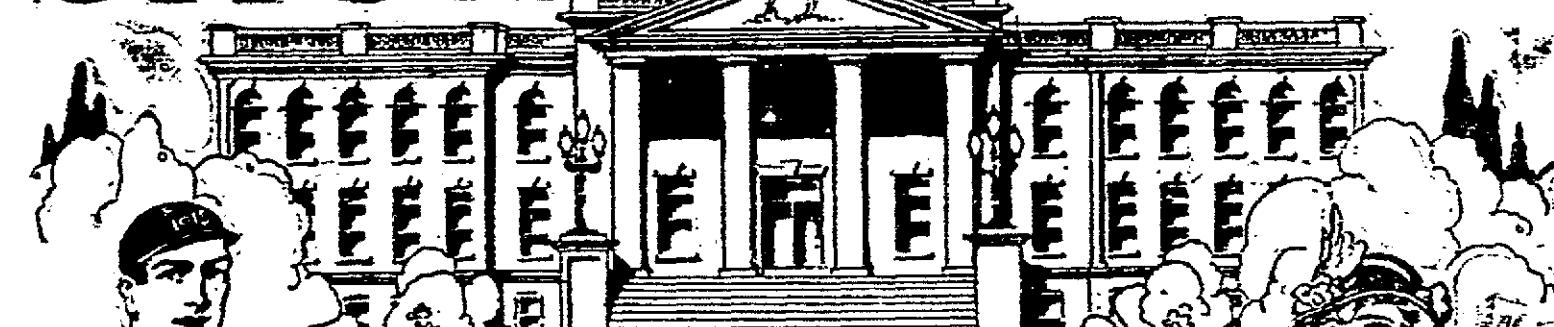

He was in command of the King Philip when she and three other boats were wrecked in the Golden Gate. He and a few others were saved from the wreckage and Keller continued his career on the sea.

ISLAND OF CRUCES.

A few years later he commanded the Elizabeth Kimball, which was wrecked off Easter Island. The ship sank, and the crew was forced to get ashore as best they could. Upon arriving on the island they found a marooned crew of another ship which had been cast ashore in the same way as themselves. These two parties combined and succeeded in making a shoo in the year's time they were on the island. Captain Keller's wife, Laura Keller, was the only woman

POLICE CATCH TWO ARSON SUSPECTS

Held Incommunicado in City
Jail Pending Further Investigation.

Following investigations of the two alleged incendiaries here in Oakland since August 11, the police arrested Archie Latimer, 1122 Kirkham street, and Dale Lucy, Fourteenth street, near Union, and are holding the two men incommunicado in the city jail, pending further investigation. The two men were arrested at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, but no information as to their arrest was given out by the police until today.

"It is true we have two men in custody," said Chief of Police Petersen, "but there are no charges against them, and we are not ready to state that they are the men we want. It is true that the arrests were made in connection with the arson investigation being conducted by Inspectors McSorley and Wood."

The two men have been cross-questioned persistently by the inspectors, being among the first citizens of Oakland to inspect the interior of the new police headquarters chambers. They have made no confessions, however, according to the police, and stoutly maintain their innocence.

The police arrested the two men about the time of night that most of the incendiary fires have started in Oakland. They had in their possession at the time of arrest small roles of rags, saturated with coal oil, such as have been found, it is alleged, at several of the fires. They were arrested in West Oakland, and the police state that they are of the opinion that the arrest forestalled another attempt to start a fire.

The police are baffled, however, to find a motive that would connect their prisoners with the fires which have caused consternation among the residents of West Oakland. The investigation will continue for several days.

Prisoners have now kept in custody for over thirty-six hours. It is not known whether any charge will be lodged against them.

Latimer is said to have been in trouble before, and is known to his connections as "Baby Lu."

The incendiary fires under investigation by the police, the largest of which destroyed the Tompkins school, were: August 11, butcher shop, 2401 Harrison boulevard; August 12, curio shop 758 Seventh street; dyeing establishment, 754 Seventh street; box factory, 125 Market street; August 13, residence, Fourteenth and Poplar streets; August 21, Tompkins school, and August 31, residence, 5617 Grove street.

WOMAN PROVES MATCH FOR WOULD-BE BURGLAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—Fighting desperately for her money and determined that she should not be victimized by a hold-up man who attempted to rob her in broad daylight, Mrs. A. Rusch, who runs a delicatessen at 170 Third street, put the desperado to flight this morning. The woman was behind the counter when the robber entered. He ordered her to enter a back room, threatening to choke her to death if she made any outcry. Instead of obeying him, she struck him in the face. The two struggled, fighting furiously, the man gradually forcing Mrs. Rusch to the rear door. Finally she succeeded in breaking away from him, seized a bottle and struck him over the head. Alarmed by her cries and with blood flowing from a cut on his scalp, he fled. Detective Earl responded to a call for aid, but the culprit had left the neighborhood.

TO HOLD EXAMINATION FOR POSTMASTERSHIP

United States civil service examination will be held on September 26 in the local postoffice building for the purpose of appointing a postmaster to fill the office at Newark, now vacant. Application blanks may be obtained from the local secretary of the civil service board at the postoffice.

A civil service examination, to which both men and women will be eligible, will be held at the San Francisco postoffice on October 9 for the position of unskilled laborer or for the purpose of establishing an eligible record for future certification made to fill any vacancies in that position which may occur in the Federal service in the city of Oakland. Applications blanks may be procured at the local postoffice from the secretary of the civil service board.

Applicants will be physically examined by a physician, and must be between the ages of 18 and 50.

TO EXPLORE PERILOUS SEAS U. S. Joins England in Making Trade Routes Safe

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Ships totaling 136,000 tons have sailed from the ports of the world during the past three years never to be heard from again. With them have been lost more than 10,000 lives and the seas have given back nothing to show in what uncharted reefs disaster lurked.

These are the figures of Lloyd's, and Commander J. Foster Stackhouse of the British naval reserve is in Washington today seeking American co-operation in solving mysteries of the deep and clearing the seas of hidden dangers.

Commander Stackhouse is preparing to start on a seven-year ocean charting expedition in the Discovery, the ship in which the ill-fated Captain Scott made his Antarctic trip.

Secretary Daniels, with whom he conferred, offered whatever assistance his department could render. It is possible that one or more naval officers, representing the hydrographical offices, will be detailed to accompany the expedition.

Its purpose, Commander Stackhouse explained, is to remove from the Pacific and other ocean charts the names of "D." and "E. P." marks which indicate "position doubtful" and "distance doubtful" in regard to rocks, reefs and small islands which are now dangerous to navigation. He said there are more than 2000 of these, most of them in the Pacific.

NEW TRADE ROUTES.

With changes in trade routes resulting from the opening of the Panama canal, Commander Stackhouse pointed out that it was important to have every rock, reef and reef in the Pacific charted, so that vessels may not be compelled to make long detours to avoid a "position doubtful" or "extreme doubtful" reef.

Commander Stackhouse declared that the shipwrecks around Cape Horn doubtless occurred because on some charts there is an error of sixty miles, it is believed, in exact location of dangerous rocks at the southern point of the continent. The lightship N. Y. S. "L" is located in the same locality, he said, was shown on some charts as "reported to be considerably off the actual geographical location."

The expedition, which will set out next March, will cover about 250,000 miles. Commander Stackhouse hopes to be accompanied by numerous scientists. Oxford and Cambridge universities will send Lord Congleton and Captain G. N. Humphries. If American co-operation is secured, the enterprise will be known as the Pan-American oceanographical ex-

WOMAN RETURNS; BURGLAR ESCAPES

She Summons the Police, But Search Fails to Land
Intruder.

Mrs. L. Murphy, 816 Twentieth street, disturbed a burglar who had entered her home by forcing a side window, when she returned at 10:40 o'clock last night. The man evidently heard her approaching the place, for he jumped from the window, ran to the rear of the property and disappeared over a fence. Mrs. Murphy called the police and a search was made, but the burglar had escaped. Nothing had been taken.

Mr. M. L. Helman, 4212 Porter street, reported to the police that burglar entered her home by using a skeleton key to force the rear door, and stole jewelry and silverware and clothing, the loss being estimated at $100.

G. Keating, Oakland overall founder, reported that the place of business was broken into and a gold watch stolen during the night.

Miss L. Sullivan, 413 Newell avenue, reported an attempted burglary at her home. Nothing was taken.

E. La Rue, 5779 Shafter Avenue, reported to the police that burglars entered his home by forcing a glass door between the kitchen and laundry and ransacked the place. Jewelry valued at $30 was stolen.

EVENING SCHOOL WILL GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

The board of education has granted permission to the Central Evening School to use the Common School Assembly hall at Chafetz Observatory on the first and third Friday nights of each month for a public literary and musical entertainment. The first entertainment will be given this evening at 8 o'clock. The program will consist of orchestral and individual musical selections after which there will be an address by Mr. W. E. Garrison, formerly president of the Chamber of Commerce on some live topic of the day. The public is cordially invited to attend.

In accordance with the policy of the board of education to further the usefulness of the evening schools, classes in chemistry and sewing have recently been added to the list of elementary and high school courses already offered in the Central Evening School. These courses are now in active operation and open to all students.

THE REGULAR DISTRIBUTION OF SOROSIS SHOES

AFFECTED BY THE EUROPEAN WAR

Americans who travel abroad know that SOROSIS SHOES are sold in special stores or departments in all the large overseas cities. They are distinctly and emphatically THE INTERNATIONAL SHOES.

When the tumult of war began there were great quantities of SOROSIS SHOES at the wharves, destined for Paris, Berlin, London, Vienna, St. Petersburg and other centers now involved in a ferment of armed strife. However, they were left high and dry on shore, because all sailings were cancelled.

We have been fortunate in securing a large shipment of these shoes. To these we have added many lots from our regular stock, the whole constituting one of the most important Shoe Sales of the season.

The immense amount of capital invested in these goods precipitates this WAR SALE OF SOROSIS—which offers direct and substantial savings to purchasers.

When you can purchase SOROSIS SHOES at anything less than regular prices, it is time to supply your wants.

FIX HEADQUARTERS FOR FARM ADVISER

Trustees Appropriate Funds;
Chamber of Commerce Also Gets Offices.

HAYWARD. Sept. 4—Funds were appropriated by the board of trustees at a special meeting last night for the furnishing of headquarters for Farm Adviser W. H. Nixon and the Chamber of Commerce. The directors of the Chamber of Commerce are meeting this afternoon to select offices. The suggestion that the headquarters of the town board, the farm adviser, and the Chamber of Commerce should be in one building will be followed out, it is predicted. The trustees will continue to meet in the old town hall. The question of building a new hall will be raised at the meeting, the board agreeing that a new hall will soon be a necessity.

No date definite, however, was done in the matter.

Remember when we thought this Mexican fandango was considerable war? We were a gullible set, what?

Some BARKING DOGS BITE.

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 4—Domoto Sekoto, employed on the ranch of L. H. Begier, kicked a noisy dog and discovered its bite was worse than its bark. The aggrieved canine sprang on the Japanese, knocking him down and sinking its teeth in his leg, which was badly lacerated. He afterwards sought the aid of Dr. B. F. Mason. Next time Sekoto says he'll employ a brick to do the kicking.

HAYWARD HIGH ELECTS.

HAYWARD, Sept. 4—The student body and the senior class of the high school elected officers yesterday. Officers of the student body are President, Miss Marion Rogers, vice-president, Harold Nygren, secretary, D'Orville Day, athletic secretary, Charles Long. REBEL AUDACITY
SEEN IN MEXICO

Party of 47 Enter Town and Order Large Force of Regulars to Leave.

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 4—An instance of it—a party of the Mexican rebels is related in a letter to Attorney J. W. Dugan of this city, from his cousin, J. S. Dougherty. A party of the rebels with a flag of truce rode into a little town on the Mexican border, one-half of which was occupied by the Americans and the other half by the Mexican regulars. The rebels ordered the regulars to leave the town. Imagining the insurrecto's true intent, the town, the commanding officer of the regulars was considering the advisability of drawing off his small party of troops, when word reached him that he had only 47 rebels to cope with. The regulars saluted out of the town and engaged the rebels in a hot fight. Dougherty watched the fray from behind the shelter of a wall on the outskirts of the American section of the town. Several of the rebels came into American territory and were disarmed.

Land on the American side is worth $3 an acre, while the very same kind of land across the border can be had for $3 an acre, according to Dougherty. The American half of the town is dry, while the Mexican portion is very much wet.

PASTOR TO LEAVE
HAYWARD CHURCH

Rev. Irving E. Thompson Will Seek New Charge at Conference.

HAYWARD, Sept. 4—The congregation of the Hayward Methodist church will soon lose the services of the pastor, Rev. Irving E. Thompson, who has done much in upbuilding the church. Rev. Thompson, who has been in Hayward three years, estimated at the annual meeting of the church last night that he intended asking for another charge at the Methodist conference which meets in Oakland next year.

Dr. S. D. Hutsinpiller, district superintendent, addressed the meeting, also completed three years of service in this office and was congratulated on his work. Reports received from the heads of different departments of the church's activity show that remarkable progress has been made during the past year.

Dr. Hutsinpiller reported that $250 had been raised for mission and other work.

Members of the Ladies' Aid Society reported Saturday they had completely renovated the parsonage and furnished it with new carpets. These improvements cost $200.

The pastor's report showed a gain of twenty-nine members in the congregation during the year. During the three years he has been in Hayward according to Rev. Thompson 55 new members have joined the church.

NEW ASSISTANT PASTOR
APPOINTED BY CHURCH

FRLITVAL, Sept. 4—J. Minikin, of the Pacific Theological School of Berkeley, has been appointed assistant pastor to Rev. Eddie E. Roy in the Frlitval Congregational Church.

The Sunday-school teachers of the Congregational church held a dinner in the church armory last night, over which acting superintendent Alexander MacPherson presided. The evening's entertainment included musical numbers.

The annual dinner of the church will be held Wednesday evening, September 16 in the church armory. Committees have been appointed to arrange the affair. A plan to improve the exterior of the church includes the laying out of a lawn and the painting of Boston ivy.

WILL PLAY FOOTBALL MATCH.

HAYWARD, Sept. 4—"Ye old and ancient" game of football will be played here tomorrow in a friendly match between the Hayward high school team and the trustees who will continue to meet in the old town hall. The question of building a new hall will be raised at the meeting, the board agreeing that a new hall will soon be a necessity.

NOT so definite, however, was done in the matter.

IN TOILS OF EVIDENCE SUSPECT FOUL MURDER

PRINCIPALS IN THE NELMS

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 4.—One of the authorities that Mrs. Innes will break down and confess all that she knows about the crime, which from all aspects now has attached her as a part of the evidence in the hands of District Attorney Linden by which he will seek to prove that Victor Innes and his wife last June murdered Mrs. Elias Dennis and her sister, Beatrice Nelms. The pieces of bone were taken yesterday afternoon from a cesspool at the cottage which was occupied by the Innes family while they lived there. The pieces of bone will be examined by experts today for the purpose of determining definitely whether they came from the skull of a human being.

The authorities have learned that Innes, in addition to the large sized meat grinder, purchased a number of sulfuric acid from a local pharmacist about the same time. H. A. Keltner, the pharmacist, has identified Innes as the man to whom the caustic of acid was sold. The grinder was shipped to Oregon by Innes, labeled as books. It has been brought back as evidence.

That Innes and his wife, or perhaps without her assistance, lured the Nelms girls to the house and there slaughtered them in a brutal manner, afterward disposing of their bodies by subjecting them to the action of acid, is the theory upon which the detectives are now working. District Attorney Linden has obtained some sort of a statement from Mrs. Innes, but he has not divulged the nature of his long conversation with her. The two children which the Innes couple brought here with them from Eugene, Ore., are still in the county jail with Mrs. Innes. It is momentarily expected by the au-

MEN LACK RIGHT, SAYS PROFESSOR

University Man Gives Views
Before United States Industrial Commission.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—Has a man any "inalienable and natural rights?" He has not! That is, he has not according to Professor Ira B. Cross of the University of California, who, invoking the higher mathematics of economics and the science of law, has declared that a poor man has no right to live the way of rights.

"There is no such thing as the natural, inalienable rights of man," said the way the professor put it.

Dr. Cross was heard yesterday before the United States commission on industrial relations. First he showed the commission that men did not have any rights. Then he proceeded to explain that therefore they had the right to strike if society approves it—of course. He said:

"To only rights are the rights of society. Industrial unrest and warfare between employer and labor will continue until the employing class is made to see that the right it claims of maintaining its business in its own way must go down before the rights of society."

HIGH COST OF LIVING.

Dr. Cross argued as the greatest present cause of industrial unrest the feeling of the workingman that he cannot get justice in the courts. He asserted that the unions have done only the things that have been forced upon them by the employers.

Dr. Cross then declared that the high cost of living was due in part to the high prices of social unrest, and suggested government ownership of all gold mines and a standardized dollar.

John A. Britton, general manager of the Pacific Gas and Electric company, said the trouble is in your blood and merely appears on the surface because the skin is a natural outlet. In time the tiny nerve threads in the skin lose their energy, the tissue cells break down and nature must have help. Now, the skin is but a network of tiny blood vessels, nerves and a modified form of muscle membrane. In other words impurities are prepared for elimination.

And it is only by supplying skin texture with new and purified blood that the constant outpouring of impurities is checked.

He declared organized labor a benefit to both employer and employee and stated that the only trouble comes through individualism.

HEAR LABOR MEN.

President A. J. Galanach of the Labor Council told the commission that if it leaves San Francisco with the impression that labor and employer conflict exists it will be between labor and employer it will be because it has called as witnesses the ex-prisoners on both sides.

George Polk was selected as one of the witnesses for yesterday, but on his non-appearance his place was taken by E. P. Troy. Other witnesses were Robert Newton Lynch, Fremont Oliver, William Harrison of the Iron Trades, and George Connelly, secretary of the Labor Council, and President Edward J. Power of the Pacific Foundry.

In executive session yesterday, and Saturday the commission adjourned to upgrade the commission on arbitration.

This is a task imposed upon the com-mision by Congress at the request of the American Federation of Labor; therefore has to be carried out. Next week the commission will hold hearings in Los Angeles.

CROCKERS HOME FROM WAR ZONE

Tell of Flight From France and Stories of Exciting Adventure.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—Miss Ethel Mary Crocker and William Crocker, daughter and son of William H. Crocker, returned from Europe Wednesday with stories of exciting adventures in the war zone. They said also that their uncle, Prince Andre Poniatowski, had gone to the front as a major in the French army, while their 17-year-old cousin, Stanislaus Poniatowski, had got an appointment as chauffeur for the French military staff at the scene of the heaviest fighting.

Mrs. Crocker, with her two youngest children, Helen and Charles, are now in London, being detained there through the illness of the boy. Mrs. Crocker's sister, Princess Poniatowski, with her three small children, have left Paris for Limerick in southern France.

When they arrived Mrs. Crocker and the four children were at Baden-Baden. They escaped on the last train that left the city. They went to the Poniatowski country home at Laimé, near Sosson, where they remained a week before going to Paris and thence to London. They had a difficult time, despite the fact that they were supplied with passports and ample funds.

The Poniatowski home was turned over to the French Red Cross for a hospital.

Miss Ethel Crocker and her brother, William, left London on the Adriatic, which was convoyed out of Liverpool, heavily armed, by a small fleet of British cruisers. The warships accompanied the liner as far as Queenstown. The voyage from that time on was uneventful.

Stanislaus Poniatowski, now driving a motor car for the French army staff, is in San Francisco and, born in the old Crocker home which was formerly one of the show places on Nob Hill, he is said to have been anxious first to enlist as an aviator.

FRENCH PERCHERONS WILL SHOW AT FAIR

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 4.—The war in Europe has figured even in the arrangements for the State Fair. Just because a German warship was not fast enough to run down the Atlantic liner Minnetonka, which had left Cherbourg, France, on August 1, the Thomas D. McLaughlin Importing Company of Chico has been able to enter nine Percherons which have landed safely in New York. The firm had a shipment of twenty-seven Percherons on the Minnetonka. Since the French government has taken over all the horses in the country during the war, the importers believe it will be a long time before any more horses are brought to the United States.

Recognizing that the State Fair patrons deserve nothing but the best in the form of amusements the directors have selected the Folger and Burk Amusement Company to furnish the attractions for the State Fair this season. While departing somewhat from the policy of former years it is thought that the engagement of a "real" organized carnival will greatly enhance the interest on the "Midway" and will prove a strong attraction.

VENDORS ARRESTED.

Telephone calls from a number of indignant housewives in North Oakland that they had been swindled by two clever peddlers who sold them bolts of cotton cloth under representations that it was English linen which had been smuggled from English vessels resulted in the arrest yesterday of Edward Caulfield and James Fallon. The two men were taken into custody by Inspectors Kyle and Flinn and Patrolmen Van Houtte and Doolin on descriptions furnished by the women. They may be charged with obtaining money under false pretense.

INDICT 32 IN ST. MARK'S CHURCH OIL SHAFT WILL FOOD PRICE TO BE DEDICATED SUPPLY WATER

Details for Ceremony Sunday Are Arranged by Clergymen.

Federal Grand Jury Accuses Dealers of Conspiracy in Business.

WASHINGTON. Sept. 4.—Three indictments were returned today by a Federal Grand Jury after a full investigation to determine whether prices had been artificially increased or pereyed of preventing been caused by the European War.

Both indictments were issued for all the indicted men, who are local commission merchants or produce dealers and bail was arranged for their appearance in court. No nationally known concerns were indicted.

The indictment charges that they have been "using prices even down foodstuffs by 'bulletins' or 'subscriptions' or verbal agreements, and that the fixed prices have been circulated by printed circulars. The indictments are under the Sherman law and conviction carries a fine of $5,000, or one year's imprisonment, or both.

The first indictment, which described the church incorporated on Sept. 18, 1914.

of Richmond, as sub-leader.

The old church was dedicated on Dec. 18, 1914, and St. Marks became a separate parish from Our Lady of Mercy on Nov. 22, 1914. Rev. P. M. Griffin, pastor of the first religious address with a short talk by Archbishop Riordan. Father Keane of Oakland will preside.

At the time of the ceremony, the water will be turned on to the western part of the city.

A broad mark was found across the forehead and one eye protruded. This led to a popular suspicion of foul play, and the police are working hard to find out what happened to the boy before falling into the water. Another theory is that in going aboard a small tug at the foot of Union street, he lost his balance and fell into the creek.

He was last known as a coasting skipper, and his name was remembered in every port from Alaska, south to the Golden Gate. He was the central figure in Jack London's book, "The Sea Wolf."

COMMAND GERMANY FOR TELEGRAPHIC PROMPTNESS

By Associated Press.

LONDON. Sept. 4, 4 a. m.—The Times in an editorial article this morning commends the prompt manner in which the Germany authorities treat the dispatches filed by Italian correspondents on the progress of the war with the delays amounting to 24 to 45 hours, which the British censorship imposes on Dutch, Italian and American news correspondents in England. As a result so-called German newspapers the Times declares gets a long start throughout the world and to the United States over news, rectifying the operations of the allies.

"No time is to be lost if this regrettable and indeed dangerous situation is to be remedied," the Times says. "The war may last long and it may affect the very existence of the empires and countries involved in it. It is not too much to ask that our government should spare neither pains nor money to insure that neutral countries, whose attitude may at critical moments be of vital importance, shall not be left without authentic and veracious information of the progress of the war and of the fortunes of the allied arms."

SPANISH STEAMER BRINGS RESERVISTS

By Associated Press.

NY YORK. Sept. 4.—With 200 French and German reservists mustering like old friends in the steerage, the Spanish steamer Mont Serra reached New York today on her way to Cadiz, Spain, from Havana and Vera Cruz. The Mont Serra will sail on Saturday for Cadiz. Meanwhile all the reservists are being kept aboard to avoid the possibility of complications over enforcing the neutrality laws.

Of the reservists 150 are French and fifty are German. They were all taken aboard at Vera Cruz, and in nearly every case the fare from Vera Cruz to Cadiz was paid by the French and German consuls at Vera Cruz.

LABOR DAY SERVICES.

RICHMOND. Sept. 4.—Labor Sunday will be observed here this week and the masters of the several city churches will speak on the general topic of the day.

Rev. Guy White, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, has announced for his topic "A Successful Labor Union."

The invitation is extended to all union labor men of the city to attend the service. Special music will be given by the church quartet. The service will start at 11 o'clock. The topic for the evening service has not been announced.

Berkeley Mayor Enthusiastic Over Choice of Albany by the Naval Department.

BERKELEY, Sept. 4.—Intense interest has been aroused here by the announcement that Secretary of the Navy Daniels has ordered the purchase of land at this city for the location of a naval base at Albany. Though there have been rumors for months that the Cerrito Hill site might be chosen for the proposed base, none have lacked definiteness. Now comes the announcement that the government is the holder of options which have refused to other parties, and that the department has made its decision.

All the above line from Gilman Street in Berkeley to St. Isaac, off Albany, is included in the area. This property is owned by the San Francisco Copper Company and the Mountain Copper Company, both of which have refused recent offers to sell their holdings.

Mayor Schenck is enthusiastic over the news, and the mayor of the town makes it imperative. He declares the beginning of work upon the Berkeley waterfront. He believes the news will militate greatly in favor of passage of the harbor bonds, which come up for a vote next week, along with the school and civic center bonds.

The property which is contemplated for the new base contains 1,000 acres. Rear Admiral Poole surveyed several different possible sites for the location of the base, concluding finally that the local one was the best of all. His plans have been laid before the naval department only in a general shape, but they may not be approved. They will be reduced to detail by the department engineers.

In the recent statement Rear Admiral Poole, who left Berkeley for Bremerhaven under department orders only a short time ago, told of his belief that the local site was the best of those offered. It was an ideal place, he declared, if only for the sake of its commanding situation opposite the Golden Gate. He concluded as follows:

"Being eleven miles from the heads and sixteen miles inside the bar, this location would be the strategic edge of the biggest guns of the hostile fleet."

"Against a torpedo boat attack by night or in a fog, a wire harver batter across the channel slack when not required, and how fast by windless in time of danger, would be adequate protection."

"Cerrito hill, which rises above this site, can also precipitous hills which could be used like fortresses and possible land attack by mounting at comparatively little expense six-inch guns and rapid fire."

SOPRANO AND OTHERS WILL GIVE HALF-HOUR

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA. Sept. 4.—The musical and dramatic committee of the university announces that at the half hour of music in the Greek hall on Wednesday evening, September 4, o'clock, D. E. Huguenin of Oakdale will present his pupil, Mrs. Lotte Schenk, soprano, assisted by Miss Edna C. Horan, violinist; Carl Schmidt, flute; Mrs. Robert McHugh, accompanist, and D. P. Huguenin, director.

The program will be as follows:

Verdi's "Ernani," "Involtini," Mrs. Schenk's violin concerto, No. VII, first movement, De Beriot, Miss Horan, Dvorak's "Song of the Earth," and Irish Love Song; Ruthen Lang, Mrs. Schenk; Meditation, Massenet; Airs Horan, Airs of Salomé from Massenet's "Héroïde"; Miss Schenk, "Tea in Rain," Mrs. A. Kirkland, Mrs. Schenk with flute obbligato; and a suite of dances playing an organ part arranged by himself. The public will be welcome.

ELABORATE PLANS FOR BIG OUTING OF ELKS

ALAMEDA, Sept. 4.—No one should be blindsided attending the Elk's annual picnic to be held Wednesday, September 9, at Grand Canyon park. The old, as well as the young, can enjoy themselves playing such games as "Weed the Winter," and the "Handkerchief." Post offices and "button money" No rough game like "Pussy in the Corner" will be tolerated.

A mudpie contest will be staged for the babies, but the management has said that the babies will not be responsible for soiled clothing. "Take this ruling, not because there are Elks belonging to the laundry trusts, but because the 'knadies' never enjoy a thing unless they are saturated with it."

MASONIC FUNERAL

BERKELEY, Sept. 4.—Under the auspices of Durant Lodge of Masons, No. 282, and Berkeley Lodge of Odd Fellows, No. 20, the funeral of the late member, funeral services were held this afternoon at the Masonic Temple for the late Thomas F. Gruber, pioneer attorney of the county. The ceremony was conducted according to the Masonic ritual, while members of both orders accompanied the remains to the place of interment.

Judge Gruber's death occurred Wednesday morning with almost no warning being the result of heart trouble. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Ada Gruber, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Jones. He was a native of Leavenworth, Kan., and at the age of 65 was a graduate of the University of Michigan and had practiced law in Berkeley and Oakland since 1876.

BOWLING CLUB TO REORGANIZE

ALAMEDA, Sept. 3.—The Alameda Bowling club will be reorganized tomorrow night at a meeting to be held at Zingars. The members of last year's organization are to attend and all interested in the sport are requested to be present.

Meetings will be held every Friday evening in September. The local club will enter a team in the bay counties' tournament.

MOTHERS' CLUB HOLD PICNIC

ALAMEDA, Sept. 4.—The Lincoln School Mothers' Club is to have a picnic next Tuesday at Sturz Park. A meeting at the school had been arranged, but the weather prevented the outdoor. Members are asked to be at Sturz Beach with their children at 11 o'clock. At 12 o'clock the regular meeting will be held.

Bazaar

BERKELEY, Sept. 4.—Determined that the sun which never sets on Britons' possessions shall set no sooner than their loyalty, a group of English men and women of Berkeley are banding every effort toward the raising of a fund for the benefit of the widows and orphans of victims of the present struggle. The members of the Overseas Club are at work as often as possible, preparing articles which are to be offered at a sale, while the men are collecting donations to the fund in other ways.

Yesterday a number of women gathered at the home of Mrs. J. F. Bateman, 3001 Dana street, and spent the afternoon sewing. Among them were Mrs. H. Hemmings Hunt, Mrs. H. W. Clements, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Margaret Weston, Mrs. Lucy, Mrs. Alice F. Murray, Alice Gu, Mrs. Bateman, and several others. Mrs. Carnegie Ross, wife of the British consul at San Francisco, is president of the corps of women workers.

In the evening the chief speaker will be Judge William H. Waste of the superior court. The evening before the election a week from tonight a rally in favor of the bond issue will be held at the Lincoln school in South Berkeley.

SCHOOL CHILDREN TO HELP.

Children of the Berkeley schools are to play a leading part in winning support for the bonds which are to be voted on Saturday, even greater owing to the opening of the Panama canal and the big fair in San Francisco, and the city must provide school funds for this vast cosmopolitan immigration.

Because of the large number of Berkeley residents, the city must prepare to face 20% or 25% increase in school population, with the next two years. In accordance with her former experience, she expects the demand for school buildings to be even greater, owing to the opening of the Panama canal and the big fair in San Francisco, and the city must provide school funds for this vast cosmopolitan immigration.

SPACE GOING FAST FOR BIG EXHIBITION

Every available booth at the Alameda County Exhibition and Carnival, which will be held at Idora Park from October 3 to 18, inclusive, under the combined auspices of the civic and commercial organizations of the county, will be taken at the end of the coming week according to a report by R. L. York, director-general of the exhibition. York stated that the space was going rapidly and urged immediate action on the part of those who desired to display their goods.

Following his suggestion several members of the Rotary Club, in addition to those who have already signed their intention of participating in the exposition, will be taken of Alameda county products, resources and manufacturers, took space at the close of the luncheon.

At the dinner-dance of the Rotary Club at Idora Park last evening additional plans for the exhibition and carnival were made and it is confidently expected that the exposition will be the biggest thing of its kind ever held in Alameda county. The object in giving it is to show the residents of the San Francisco bay region what Alameda county has to offer.

GOV. JOHNSON DEFENDS ADMINISTRATION POLICY

With Eshleman He Begins Party State Campaign at Oakland Mass Meeting

Governor Huron W. Johnson before a large crowd in Piedmont Pavilion, last night launched his campaign for a second term, beginning as he declared, in the city where he began his political career, when under the leadership of the first elected John M. Anderson, he was chosen to be lieutenant governor, and president of the state militia commission.

Eshleman was the other speaker of the meeting. Eshleman was enthusiastically cheered as he told of the work of the commission and of his beliefs, policies and plans.

Senator A. H. Smith, the chairman of the event, was introduced by Senator J. W. Stevenson, who pointed out that Progressiveism had been practically scattered in California.

"I am gratified," he declared, "that Mr. Johnson has, for sentimental reasons, decided to open his campaign in the county where he began his political career." The audience responded with applause.

"To meet two of the most prominent officials in the state of California, two names stand in California for good government, efficiency and democracy, the two men I have chosen to speak for Governor Johnson since he left last election. He has made good and his opponents have made good, and you know it."

Who would appreciate the work of the commission of which Mr. Johnson is chairman, and who would introduce to you Mr. Eshleman, for he is an Alameda county product, a graduate of the State University, and first entered the political arena as an assemblyman from Berkeley.

Eshleman was cheered as he rose.

HIS OLD ALLEGIANCE.

"You all know the principles which I defend, but the principles which I voice. Partnership in California is dead, and citizenship is triumphant. Four years ago California was in bondage; today she is free and the man we have to thank for it is Huron Johnson. He is the greatest governor and state elector that ever lived."

"I came here to reaffirm my allegiance to the governor and his principles. This is more than fitting as more Republicans have voted for me than for the man who will oppose Johnson."

"If I had but time, I could tell you as I do, that I would not stand before the primaries. Two weeks before the primaries I made a statement of just how I stood. Still, there are some now who wonder, they wonder what candidate will support an anti-subsidy bill. I will not support the candidates of old parties and I will not attend their conventions."

"I am here to demand—not ask—but demand vindication and support. We seek recognition of the great service of four years, and we ask that those who believe in honest government will rally to us. Remember, four years ago Johnson, the bondholder—today she is free—and we have been presented to any measure we endeavored to preserve the soil of our state and passed an anti-enlist bill. We have given to this state the most perfect miners' compensation law that is in existence."

Pursuers Wounded in Chase With Hold-ups

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 4.—In two attempted hold-ups within twenty minutes of each other and but a few blocks apart in a residence district C. F. Pochlitz, a retired contractor, and Theodore Petersen, an engineer of Portland, were shot last night. Pochlitz probably fatally. Petersen was frightened by his wife's screams. Petersen, whose wound is not serious, was relieved of $60.

Schooner Departs to Rescue 21 Castaways

NOME, Alaska, Sept. 4.—The gasoline schooner King and Wing, which arrived here last Tuesday from Point Barrow, set forth from here yesterday and will make a new effort to rescue twenty-one castaways of the wrecked Karluk of the Stefansson expedition, who have been on Wrangel Island since March 10. The schooner went on the urgent solicitation of Captain Bartlett. The revenue cutter Bear, which had been sent to search for the men, failed to reach the men last month, but after a struggle with ice and heavy seas was forced to turn back and return to Nome and will make a second effort to reach the men.

"We shall tonight ask them to point to the nearest state of California what law, for which we are responsible, they will repeal."

"If the caviling and the carpings, if the remnant of the old machine, if the dust will not let us have passed, then we can take it off. If their actions have the entire approval and endorsement of the people, or that with ulterior motives our opponents have acted by hypocrisy and chicanery to obtain the office, then which they do not tell the people, then we do not tell the people either."

"I marked a course to pursue. In 1910 and uncompromisingly and unswervingly that course has been followed. At no point and at no time, from the time we have begged our opponents concretely to say what law we have passed that they oppose."

"Then again tonight we ask them to point to the nearest state of California what law, for which we are responsible, they will repeal?"

"If the caviling and the carpings, if the remnant of the old machine, if the dust will not let us have passed, then we can take it off. If their actions have the entire approval and endorsement of the people, or that with ulterior motives our opponents have acted by hypocrisy and chicanery to obtain the office, then which they do not tell the people either."

"Today there are the three thousand."

JUDGE BY THEIR WORKS.

"The present administration presents in concrete form definite policies which have been adopted and are in process of execution, and it asks the endorsement or rejection of those policies. It asks to be judged by its labor and the fruits of its labor."

"Today there are the three thousand."

FALLING HAIR AND DANDRUFF

For Four Years, Dandruff Could Be Seen Plainly, Head Burned and So Itchy Could Hardly Stand It. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Trouble Disappeared.

455 12th St., Detroit, Mich.—I was troubled with falling hair and dandruff for about four years. The dandruff was very thick and my hair was always full of it. It could be seen plainly at times and whenever I would comb my hair it would come out pretty bad and my coat would be covered with it. Whenever I would scratch my head it would get red and leave little pimples.

Then my head would burn and be so itchy that I could hardly stand it. I tried almost everything but with no result till one night I happened to chance upon Cuticura Soap and Ointment and thought I would try them. After using them about two weeks I found they were doing me so much good that I kept right on using the Cuticura Soap for washing my hair and the Cuticura Ointment for rubbing on my scalp. Now my hair is nice and thick and I am not bothered with any more dandruff or falling hair. The trouble has disappeared. (Signed) Roy McFender, Jan. 31, 1914.

Samples Free by Mail

A single hot bath with Cuticura Soap and a gentle anointing with Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing cases of skin and scalp diseases when all else fails. Sold throughout the world. Liberal samples of each mailed free. 32c per Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. 2, Boston."

CHARGED WITH VAGRANCY.

Patrolmen Watson and Garcia, who have been detailed to keep watch upon women who may attempt to violate the law, last night arrested Rose Briggs and May Johnson, two domestics, in the Waider's cafe, on Eighth street, on charges of vagrancy, after gathering evidence to be introduced in court against the two women. They were arraigned this morning before Judge George Samuels.
